9. The following rule applies: the player will collect the prize in person at the closing ceremony of the tournament.

In the event of the player's absence, the prize is automatically transferred to the next person in the given classification.

10. In the event of a tie, the order of places (in the net classification) is determined by the lower handicap. In the absence of a decision, the "count back" method decides, i.e. a better result on holes 10-18, 13-18, 16-18 and finally on hole 18.

11. The tournament organizer reserves the right not to allow a player to play without giving a reason.
